DETAILED ACTION

This non-final action is in response to the election/restriction response received on 4/19/07

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of air sterilization method using ultraviolet light in the reply filed on 04/19/2007 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 2-10 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 04/19/2007.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.
4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 4; Applicant states the limitation of "to remove large particles". The disclosure does not provide dimensional information with regard to what constitute "large particle" and one of ordinary skill in the art upon reading the specification would not understand what "large" represents since there is no reference in art to measure against. Also, in line 8, Applicants recites the feature "or other similar shapes of paths". However, the disclosure does not provide examples that illustrate what represents "other similar shapes of paths" for one ordinary skill in the art to understand this feature. Correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hirai et al (U.S.P.N. 4,990,311).

Hirai discloses a method for deodorizing fluent material in large volume by radiation of ultraviolet rays (figure 5:22) where the method comprises the steps: forcing fluent material (figure 5:62) through filter (figure 3:50 and col.4, lines 49-52), using circuitous sterilizing chambers (gas flowing in the upper part of diffuser plate 41 in chamber 71 then the gas flows downward through connecting duct 81 into chamber 72, then flowing upward through the upper part of diffuser plate 42, then flowing downward again and exiting through discharge pipe 84 as shown in figure 3) with sinuous path to contain the air/gas mixture, employing intense UV irradiation (col.7, lines 33-38 and lines 47-48) to kill all live microorganisms in the air/gas mixture passing through chamber (figure 3:71 and 72), converting ozone in air into oxygen when dealing with air (figure 3:50 where this structure has two functions, one as a filter and the other as an ozone decomposing catalyst. See col.4, lines 49-52) and discharging sterilized air/gas mixture out of the second chamber (figure 3:72 and 84). As to the limitation of sterilizing fluent material, see MPEP 2112, II.
